

IRS Verification of Non-Filing Letter

Federal regulations require some students and parents to submit proof that they didn't file an IRS Tax Return in 2017. The IRS Verification of Non-Filing Letter is required if:

- The student, their spouse if married, or parent(s) did not file a 2017 tax return
- The student, their spouse if married, or parent(s) were not required to file a 2017 tax return

How to obtain a IRS Verification of Non-Filing Letter

Option 1: Request Online

If the non-filer has their own verifiable credit history (credit card, auto loan, mortgage, etc), they can use the "Get Transcript Online" tool found at <https://www.irs.gov/individuals/get-transcript>. This option is only available if the non-filer has filed a tax return in a previous year AND they already have an account set up through the IRS. If you are not eligible to use this option, you must complete option 2 and mail or fax the attached form to the IRS.

Option 2: Submit Form 4506-T

Non-filers who are unable to use option 1 above must mail or fax the completed Form 4506-T to the Internal Revenue Service. Please complete sections 1-4, include your WSUID number on line 5B, sign, date, and provide your phone number on the attached form and mail or fax the completed form to the correct IRS office (not WSU).

Completing these steps helps to protect your privacy. Once the IRS discloses your tax transcript to the third party listed on line 5, the IRS has no control over what the third party does with the information. If you would like to limit the third party's authority to disclose your transcript information, you can specify this limitation in your written agreement with the third party.

6 Transcript requested. Enter the tax form number here (1040, 1065, 1120, etc.) and check the appropriate box below. Enter only one tax form number per request. ▶ a Return Transcript, which includes most of the line items of a tax return as filed with the IRS. A tax return transcript does not reflect changes made to the account after the return is processed. Transcripts are only available for the following returns: Form 1040 series, Form 1065, Form 1120, Form 1120-A, Form 1120-H, Form 1120-L, and Form 1120S. Return transcripts are available for the current year and returns processed during the prior 3 processing years. Most requests will be processed within 10 business days

b Account Transcript, which contains information on the financial status of the account, such as payments made on the account, penalty assessments, and adjustments made by you or the IRS after the return was filed. Return information is limited to items such as tax liability and estimated tax payments. Account transcripts are available for most returns. Most requests will be processed within 10 business days

c Record of Account, which provides the most detailed information as it is a combination of the Return Transcript and the Account Transcript. Available for current year and 3 prior tax years. Most requests will be processed within 10 business days

7 Verification of Nonfiling, which is proof from the IRS that you did not file a return for the year. Current year requests are only available after June 15th. There are no availability restrictions on prior year requests. Most requests will be processed within 10 business days

8 Form W-2, Form 1099 series, Form 1098 series, or Form 5498 series transcript. The IRS can provide a transcript that includes data from these information returns. State or local information is not included with the Form W-2 information. The IRS may be able to provide this transcript information for up to 10 years. Information for the current year is generally not available until the year after it is filed with the IRS. For example, W-2 information for 2011, filed in 2012, will likely not be available from the IRS until 2013. If you need W-2 information for retirement purposes, you should contact the Social Security Administration at 1-800-772-1213. Most requests will be processed within 10 business days

Caution: If you need a copy of Form W-2 or Form 1099, you should first contact the payer. To get a copy of the Form W-2 or Form 1099 filed with your return, you must use Form 4506 and request a copy of your return, which includes all attachments.

9 Year or period requested. Enter the ending date of the year or period, using the mm/dd/yyyy format. If you are requesting more than four years or periods, you must attach another Form 4506-T. For requests relating to quarterly tax returns, such as Form 941, you must enter each quarter or tax period separately.
