

Looking for FREE Money?

SCHOLARSHIPS

WSU Admission Based

WSU offers scholarships at time of admission based on your GPA, test scores, and other factors.

More information on these scholarships and requirements can be found here: admission.wsu.edu/scholarships/

WSU General Scholarship Application

One application, six essay answers, and numerous scholarship opportunities!

This application allows you to be considered for WSU Endowed Scholarships and WSU academic department scholarships.

This application opens the start of the academic aid year, and closes January 31st.

Scholarship Search Engine

This search houses numerous outside and WSU departmental scholarships. We've done the research on these to make sure these are legitimate opportunities. Now it is YOUR turn to apply!

Check out our site: financialaid.wsu.edu/scholarship-search

Outside Scholarship Searches

A popular and efficient way to find scholarships is through a scholarship search. You sign up (for free!), complete a questionnaire, and enter your academic information.

The company alerts you of opportunities that you may be eligible to apply for, then it is up to you to apply!

OTHER RESOURCES

Here are a few of our favorite searches:

Unigo.com
Thewashboard.org
Fastweb.com
Bigfuture.collegeboard.org
Scholarshipmonkey.com
Finaid.org

Scholarship Tips:

- Tell YOUR story!
- Think about what sets you apart.
- Don't just list things, tell us about your impact and experience.
- Have someone proofread—spelling and grammar counts.
- The more you apply for, the better your chances!

